Dear Bill:

Thank you for sending me a copy of your Westminster speech. What a tremendous honor to be selected to follow in Churchill's footsteps, and how ironic your themes are in many ways an echo of his.

Your address provides us with a pithy analysis of the nature of the threat and I must tell you how wholeheartedly I agree with your view of "What We Face". You will be glad to know we at A.I.D. are fully aware of the problem as you have described it and we are doing all we can to make our foreign aid program an effective component of our foreign policy offensive.

Congratulations again on a superb presentation.

Sincerely,
